Subject: Emergency Leave - July 25. 2025

Hello Jenny,
Good morning,

Sending you this message as Mal is currently away.

I hope you're well. I'd like to request an emergency leave today as our babysitter had an unexpected emergency, and there's no one available to look after the baby in their place. I'll make sure to catch up on any missed work as soon as possible.

I'm already in the office and just got the message from home, rest assured I'll leave instructions to the team and will be available via teams if there's something urgent. Rheg will oversee the team temporarily.

Thank you for your understanding.

Yours Sincerely,
Bryan
