Thank you, Marnie, for sending this and keeping them informed.

Hello @Cedrick , I'm also experiencing issues with Harley. While logging in today, my punches are not reflecting in the system. I've tried several times and encountered the same result (see snippet below).

I'll try again later today, and if the issue persists, I'll request a time adjustment instead on the platform. (If unable, please expect a reply from this email). I suggest @Marnie Catalogo please do the same, and we'll leave it to RSS for the necessary adjustments.

Hello HR,

Upon checking Harley, I noticed there appears to be an error, as there is no option to log out. I've attached a screenshot for your reference.

I logged in at 6:45 AM and have rendered 1 hour of OT. I was about to log out at 7:02 PM, but there was no option to do so.

Could you please advise on how to resolve this logout issue?

Thank you for your assistance.

Kind regards,
Marnie
